

Continuing Scholarship Application

This application is for students previously awarded a Caleb Scholars Program scholarship. All applicants must read our Program Policies found on our website www.calebscholars.org prior to submitting an application.

The Caleb Scholars Program supports outstanding Alaska Native students from Alaska's Arctic regions who are pursuing marine conservation-related education and careers. Caleb Lumen Pungowiyi was a revered global leader raised with the traditions of his St. Lawrence Island Yupik heritage. Throughout his life via leadership positions he held across the Arctic, he led efforts to sustain traditional practices in a modern world by bridging traditional Alaska Native and modern science communities. To carry forward his life's work, and with generous support from the Oak Foundation, Kawerak, Inc. is honored to invite the next generation of Alaska Native students interested in making an impact through research, policy, and advocacy to become a part of the Caleb Scholars Program.
